

1. If you have not installed the K2 Client for other applications please do so before trying to install photoshop CS3 or any of our other keyed software packages. The K2 Client can be obtained from <http://www.sassafras.com/support.html> or from the cardkey office, or from the location you are downloading this software from. (See folder:K2 Client)

2. IP address for K2 Client is 169.229.154.251 (check for current client password in 477)

3. You must have internet access and be connected when trying to install this software and when operating this software, it depends on a connection to the keyserver to obtain a license.

To install Photoshop CS3 open the photoshop folder and double click on "Autoplay" icon. If installing from network; copy photoshop folder completely to your local machine before running "Autoplay"

Install serial number:1330-1034-0857-9673-5970-8663

During installation of Photoshop you will be asked if you wish to register this software choose "do not register". This is a volume license so registration is not needed and will not work. No online support for this software is provided by Adobe. Installation of this software is with the understanding that the college (CED) is not responsible for any problems arising from its installation or use. You may make use of this software only if you have a current Architecture Computing account.