THE CED
Department of Architecture awards:

CHESTER MILLER
FELLOWSHIP

ELIGIBILITY:
Applicants must be an M.Arch. or M.S. student in his/her thesis year.

REQUIREMENTS:
Anonymous material should include a HARD-COPY and an ELECTRONIC COPY of the following:
• One-paragraph abstract summarizing your proposal.
• Statement of purpose and clear methodology related to both the thesis project and the budget (2 page max, double-spaced, no smaller than 10pt type.)
• Registration & Eligibility Form
• Application for Departmental Aid.

Optional material:
• Copy of your thesis for review at the jury’s discretion.

AWARDS:
The Chester Miller Fellowship will be divided as seen fit by the jury. The amount of the awards range from ~$500-2000 and are based on the quality of the proposals and/or financial need.

Research budgets should reflect this $500-$2000 range. Awards are to be used to support the student’s research only. If a student realizes after being awarded that the fellowship amount isn’t sufficient to do the intended research, the money must be returned to the Architecture Department.

Proposals from past winners are available in the Grad Office, 370 Wurster Hall, Monday-Friday from 9am-12noon & 1pm-4pm.

Do not submit letters of recommendation or transcripts.
