“... the concept of refugee is inherently spatial, it is important to address the 'right to the production of space' and acknowledge the fact that design alone cannot solve all the problems of refugees and their settlements”.

- Gaurang Khemka