Partial financial support for the Berkeley Planning Journal is provided by the Institute of Urban and Regional Development (IURD) at U.C. Berkeley. The majority of publication costs are covered by subscribers, whose continuing support makes each volume possible. Special thanks to Kaye Bock, Graduate Assistant for the Department of City and Regional Planning. We are also indebted to the support of IURD, in particular Director Judith Innes, Barbara Hadenfeldt, David Van Arnam, Colleen Clay, and Chris Amado.
