

Berkeley Planning Journal

The Berkeley Planning Journal (BPJ) is an annual peer-reviewed journal published by graduate students in the Department of City and Regional Planning (DCRP) at the University of California, Berkeley since 1985.

2007 Institutional Subscription Form

The Berkeley Planning Journal is presently making a special offer for new institutional subscribers. Institutions which purchase an annual subscription to the BPJ prior to the 1 June 2007 release of our next volume (BPJ 20) will receive the current volume free of charge. The current volume (BPJ 19) is a special themed issue entitled Sustainable Transportation in the US: From Rhetoric to Reality.

Our annual institutional subscription rate is $40. Checks should be made out to Berkeley Planning Journal and sent to us at the following address:

Berkeley Planning Journal
Institute of Urban and Regional Development,
University of California, Berkeley
316 Wurster Hall #1870
Berkeley, CA 94720-1870

To help new institutional subscribers quickly build their Berkeley Planning Journal collection, we are offering to include our two previous volumes for an additional $20. Please fill out the following form appropriately and include it with your payment. For additional questions please contact Ms. Chris Amado at +1 510 642 6082 or by email at clamado@berkeley.edu.
